Only, Was That Taken at Frankfort Today.

WHEAT RISES FOUR CENTS.

White Stock's Slump on the New York Exchange.

FLOOD SITUATION IMPROVED IN MEMPHIS.

Frankfort, April 19.—Only a formal ballot of one vote was taken by the joint assembly today for Senator "The situation is acute and what will be the outcome no man can tell. It is the general opinion that Dr. Hunter will withdraw and that he will be permitted to name his successor as caucus nominee. That either a Republican or Senator Martin will be elected very soon is the general opinion.

STOCKS SLUMPING.

WHEAT JUMPING.

War News Sends the Former Down and the Latter Up.

New York, April 19.—There was a marked decline in stocks on the market this morning, attributable, it is said, to the war news from Greece. There was a slump all along the line, ranging from three to seven cents.

Chicago, April 19.—The effect of the war news on the wheat market here was electric. Prices ranged four cents above those of Saturday and there was the greatest excitement on change.

SOUTHERN APPOINTMENTS.

President Expected to Make Them This Week.

Washington, April 23.—It is expected the President will this week give attention to a number of important appointments in the Southern states.

Slightly Improved at Memphis. Memphis, April 19.—The flood situation is slightly improved, here, the river having fallen considerably since Saturday. It is believed the waters will now continue falling until they are out of the way, which, however, will not be before several weeks yet probably.

Frankfort, April 19.—W. J. Bryan spoke here at 2 o'clock before the legislative assembly.

FOR THE ROMANCE.

A Paducah Couple Go to Metropolis to Marry.

Miss Jessie Gammon Weds Mr. Wooten, Both of the City.

Yesterday morning Miss Jessie Gammon and Mr. Spence Wooten, both of this city, left for Metropolis and were married. The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. R. Gammon, the well known tailor, and the happy groom is a well known young business man.

There was no objection to the match, the couple just going to Metropolis for the romance.

A BAD EGG.

More Evidence Accumulating Daily.

Against Harry Livingston, Alias Jarvis, the Alleged Ring-Ling Bros.' Agent.

Unless appearances are very deceptive, the man now in jail known here as Harry Livingston, agent for Ring-Ling Bros., circus, is an exceedingly smooth citizen, many of whose operations are still unknown.

Yesterday Mr. R. G. Balls, an agent for Barnum's circus, heard of Livingston's operations and made some inquiries concerning him which resulted in the discovery that he tallies exactly with the description of a man going by the name of Maddox and Franklin, who has worked many cities in the country by representing Barnum's and other circuses. He saw Livingston and asked him if his name was Maddox or Franklin, but received negative replies. It is said, however, that Livingston has told parties in the jail that he was known in some places as Maddox. If Livingston is the man he is badly wanted in half a dozen places.

HARNESS BROKE.

Exciting Runaway On Sunday Afternoon.

An exciting runaway in which two prominent young men narrowly escaped injury occurred Sunday afternoon. They were driving on Sixth street when the harness broke and the horse took a start and started to run. One of the young men attempted to jump out, but was thrown to the ground and painfully bruised. The other, who was driving, kept hold of the lines until the depot was reached, when the horse slowed up and he was enabled to jump out without sustaining anything more serious than the injury to his clothes.

$200,000 FIRE.

Twenty Business Houses Burned at Berea, Ohio.

Berea, Ohio, April 19.—A loss of at least $200,000 has been sustained here and the fire is still raging. Twenty business houses in the center of the city have already gone up in smoke, and the end is not yet.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Mrs. J. M. Walton Succumbs at Last.

DEATH WAS UNEXPECTED.

Mr. Charles Farrell's Little Son Dies of Tonsillitis.

OTHER DEATHS OF A DAY.

The many friends of Mrs. J. M. Walton will be grieved to learn of her death which took place last night at Mrs. Heli's boarding house on Eighth and Jefferson.

She had been in bad health for some weeks, but while it was known that her condition was serious, her death was entirely unexpected and came very suddenly. She was perfectly conscious up to the moment of her death.

She was formerly Miss Ethel Mason, the daughter of Mr. Jay Mason, who was a highly respected citizen of Paducah. She was 26 years old and was married in Mayfield several years ago to Mr. J. M. Walton, the well known employee of Covington Bros. She leaves a daughter, Ida May, a little girl of two years.

Mrs. Walton was a pure woman, of a beautiful character, a consistent Christian and a loving mother. Her friends were numbered by the score. The funeral will take place tomorrow from the residence at 10 o'clock. The services will be held by Rev. W. K. Penrod and the burial will be at Oak Grove.

DULL BUSINESS

Causes a Great Reduction in Train Service.

Two Local Freights Taken Off Between Paducah and Memphis Yesterday.

The heavy decrease in freight business of the past few weeks has caused a very considerable reduction in train service on the Illinois Central. On yesterday two of the four freight locals were taken off, one between Paducah and Newbern and one between Newbern and Memphis. This arrangement now leaves only one local from Paducah and Newbern, going out one day and returning the next. The reduction is only temporary and after business picks up they will be put back as usual.

The local will leave Paducah on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and will leave Newbern on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

DESPERATE FIGHTING

Between the Greeks and Turks by Land and Water.

WAR BEGINS IN EARNEST.

The Turks Have Rather the Advantage Thus Far.

IRREGULARS CUTTING THEIR WAY

Foot of Milouna Pass, April 18, 10 a. m.—A fierce battle raged in the pass all night long. The Greeks, who entered and descended toward the valley, encountered four battalions of Turks, who drove them back at the point of the bayonet, rescued the force garrisoning the Turkish block house, which the Greeks had encircled before entering the pass.

Neshad Pasha commanding the fifth division, occupied Mount Parna with a great force, while Hain Pasha commanding the sixth division, prepared to enter the Tchaian pass, and Haidar Pasha, with the fourth division, occupied the Milouna pass. Before dawn Edhem Pasha rode out to direct the disposition of these divisions. A general engagement ensued. The battle still continues along the entire pass, over 20,000 men being engaged. The combat turned on the possession of the Greek block house, which was most fortunately defended. Several vigorous attacks were made by the Turks without success, but finally, about 9 o'clock, by a magnificent dash, they took the block house at the point of the bayonet.

The Greeks are still defending their positions on the summit of the hills. At the present moment four battalions of Meudukh Pasha's division are advancing to the frontier positions already taken. The Turks are fighting like lions, the Turkish artillery doing splendid execution under the command of Riza Pasha. The correspondent of the Associated Press says: "I regret to have to announce the death of Haidar Pasha at Milouna. The battle is still undecided, but the Turks, without calling up the reserves, have taken almost the whole pass. It is impossible to give details as to the losses. I saw many groups of wounded men, but they were mostly on the heights. Ambulances have been sent to bring them in. I can not say whether the Turks intend to advance on Larissa."

Are Cutting Their Way Through the Turkish Lines.

New York, April 19.—The Greek irregulars are cutting their way through the Turkish lines according to advices received here this morning.

Fighting Ordered Stopped.

Larissa, April 18.—When the Crown Prince Constantine received news of the capture of the Turkish positions between Nezeres and Rapsani he wired to the Greek command, there to stop fighting immediately.

Greek Victories Reported.

Larissa, April 19.—The Greeks have captured the Turkish positions between Nezeres and Rapsani and are in full retreat toward the interior, where their forces are massing. The batteries at Menexa ceased firing at 11 p. m. Sunday.

THAT AIRSHIP.

Seen by Many People Last Night.

Was Also Seen Saturday in This City and in Metropolis by Prominent People.

Paducah has been turned upside down during the last few days by visions of the mysterious airship which has been floating over the country and giving inquisitive persons the neck ache from looking up at it.

In front of the Palmer House last night a party of gentlemen including Messrs. Charles Weille, Frank M. Fisher, C. W. Spillman and others saw a light in the northwest that was certainly an airship—if it wasn't a toy balloon—or something else. It moved over considerable space and not in a straight line, thus disposing of the star theory. On Saturday Mr. George Langstaff, Jr., and Mr. A. N. Starks, formerly of the Metropolis "Journal," both stated that they saw the light and that it certainly was something besides a star. Other parties at Metropolis claim to have seen the search light and that its rays were thrown on the deck of a boat on the river showing the deck hands at work.

The great majority of people are still skeptical on the subject and are inclined to think that a gigantic hoax is being practiced.

SIPE WATER

Plays an Important Part in the Police Court.

ED POWELL HELD FOR THE JURY.

Said to Have Stolen $10 While Brushing R. D. Thompson's Clothes.

SMALL DOCKET THIS MORNING.

Maud Yeltima and Fannie Beavers were presented in the police court this morning on the charge of using insulting language to Joe Berry. The evidence developed the fact that Berry had made some "incongruous" remarks about Cairo sipe water and that Maud Yeltima commonly known as "Sipe Water Maud" had taken them unto herself, and smarting under the opprobrium had retaliated by insinuating that Berry had once been arrested for stealing hogs. The case was dismissed.

Ed Powell, a diminutive colored boy, was presented on the charge of stealing a $10 bill from Mr. R. D. Thompson while brushing his clothes. Judge Sanders had the case laid before the grand jury. Powell claims to be innocent and says the bill was given to him by another colored boy to have changed.

J. P. Winters was fined $1 and costs for using insulting language. There were no other cases on the docket, not a single arrest having been made on Sunday.

ALLARD'S CASE

Discontinued Pending Further Investigation.

Doubts of His Sanity Cause the Temporary Suspension of the Case.

Parties who arrived in the city this morning from Metropolis state that Oliver Allard's rape case was not thrown out of court as has been stated, but that the case has been temporarily discontinued pending a further investigation by physicians in regard to Allard's sanity. There is a prevailing impression that his peculiar actions and much of the trouble he has been in have been the result of a mild insanity, which of course would be sufficient grounds for the dismissal of the case.

The chapters will be formed in several classes consisting of married men and young men in one class, married ladies in another and young ladies in still another so that any subject may be freely discussed in each of the classes. The league is not aimed at Sabbath breaking, but is designed to promote the purity of speech and conduct. To this end the league will shortly have printed a constitution and a number of pamphlets which will be distributed. As has been stated before, the campaign will be one of education and sensational issue will be strictly avoided.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Praised Very Highly by Underwriter Johnson.

He Says Another Fire Station is Unnecessary, for the Present at Least.

Councilman Kamleiter, of the fire committee, stated yesterday to a Sun reporter that the new fire station in the Rowlandtown end of the city would not be necessary.

On Saturday he had a talk with Underwriter Johnson who is now engaged in rearing the city, and to his gratification that gentleman stated that he had made a thorough examination of Paducah's department and had found it to be of the first excellence. He said that taking into consideration the size of the city, Paducah had the best department in the state. Mr. Johnson said that for the present at least, a new fire station would be unnecessary, the only thing that would be expected by the insurance people being the keeping of the department in its present good condition and the gradual addition of new fire fighting devices as they became necessary.

Paducah is in the first class, as regards insurance rating. That means a saving of from $10,000 to $12,000 a year in insurance premiums.

MONDAY, APRIL 19, 1897.

WHEAT advanced over four cents on Saturday under the influence of war news from Europe. The biggest thing that can happen for the business interests of the United States is a European war.

The death rate in New York City for the first quarter of 1897 was the lowest in its history, 20.31 per 1000.
The physicians attribute this largely to the increased cleanliness of the streets. There is an important lesson here for all cities, large and small.

SARA BERNHART is very much interested in the Cretan situation. Her late husband, M. Damala, was a Cretan by birth. She denounces the powers for their oppression of Greece, which she calls "the ethical mother of France." If Sara stamps her little foot the world will hear it.

In Sweden and Finland telephones are in common use among the farmers. In Augusta county, Virginia, a cheap system of telephone has been extended into the country. That we shall before long have telephones and free delivery of mails in this country in the rural districts seems altogether probable. These two necessities would do much to render farm life desirable.

The Chinese are said to trade with Japan as freely as they did before the late war in which the little island kingdom did them "so brown." But the Chinese people knew little of that war or its incidents and many of them never heard of it. Then patriotism is not a prominent trait of the Chinese character. They have little to be patriotic over.

We have not yet heard from the candidates for the Republican nominations for county offices. They should come forward at once. The race is open for all. It costs no more to make yourself known now and take time by the forelock than later, after the other fellows have all got in their work. Make your candidacy known through the columns of the Sun.

The gold production of the United States is said by a competent French authority to have led the world in 1896. It exceeded that of Australia by more than $7,000,000 and that of South Africa by more than $9,000,000. Listening to the Popo-cary during the late campaign we would have been led to believe the gold production of this country amounted to nothing.

Mrs. U. S. GRANT will shortly publish memoirs of the General which will prove to be a book of no small interest to the American people. Grant was a great general and as a statesman was by no means a failure, and his domestic life, which will no doubt be prominent in the forthcoming work, was a beautiful one, of which the American people will read with pleasure and profit.

The United States Fish Commission has called attention to the fact that at the present rate of slaughter alligators and turtles are likely soon to become extinct in Florida. What special value attaches to the "gator" is not apparent, yet we should all dislike to know that our great sau-rurian had made his exit. The matter is different with the turtle, which has value for food. His special danger lies in the destruction of the eggs, which are eagerly sought.

A STOCKHOLDER in the gravel roads who opposes the sale of his stock for the reason that he has never received a dividend in twenty-eight years has a peculiar way of looking at things. Most men would be glad to have fifty cents on the dollar for a non-dividend paying stock. It is the dividend paying stocks that are generally held at or above par. Those stockholders who do not sell at much less than par will probably hold their stock for some time yet.

The resignation of Prince Hohen-lohe, Imperial Chancellor of the German empire, comes at a critical time for the Emperor, when he is in the midst of international complications that may become of the gravest character. No doubt he longs for a man like the "Iron Prince," who glorified the reign of the young Emperor's father, and who the young emperor set aside on ascending the throne for a man who, for astute diplomacy and statecraft, would not be mentioned in the same day.

SECRETARY GAGE is said to have in his possession and preserve as a trophy of a most important event a telegram from California consisting of a single word for which he paid five dollars, and thought it a great bargain at that. He was some years ago sojourning in Florida when he wrote a letter to a lady in California making a proposition to her and asking her decision by wire. The answer came, the single word "yes." He was a happier man and has since cherished the little harbinger of his oy.

A QUESTION of some importance to the American army has been raised in connection with the projectiles used with the modern rifles. It is a long and very slender bit of iron and it is doubted that its effect in battle will be sufficiently destructive. It has not been tried. Should its trial prove it deficient it would be most disastrous to make the discovery in front of the enemy. The question is being agitated somewhat and the result of the use of such a weapon in a foreign war will be watched with great interest.

INDICATIONS are multiplying that England has sinister designs on the Transvaal country, whose rich gold mines have attracted John Bull's cupidity. The attitude of the government is too aggressive to permit of an amicable adjustment of the differences with the little republic, whose president is the kind of stuff that gives an eye for an eye and that will not be bluffed. Should England send an army against the Transvaal the queen is liable to receive a letter from her grandson, the Emperor of Germany, which will not be couched in the most affectionate terms.

Is his address at Louisville Saturday night Mr. Bryan repeated his old claim that an "honest dollar" is one "whose purchasing power is the same today, yesterday and forever." The utter impossibility of having such a dollar, in the nature of things, must be apparent to anyone who will give the matter a thought. The purchasing power of the dollar fluctuates with prices of various commodities which are controlled by the inexorable laws of supply and demand. A dollar may buy two bushels of wheat today and but one tomorrow, yet it will pay the same debt on both days.

Mr. BRYAN attributes the opposition of the bankers of the country to bimetallism, as set forth in the Chicago platform, to ignorance of the science of money. The bankers may be ignorant of the science of money in the abstract, but their judgment as to the concrete science can be pretty safely taken. It is ignorance and bigotry that attributes the position of the bankers to their want of knowledge of the subject. If they do not know it who does? It is of a piece with the other claim that bankers precipitate panics for their own personal gain, whereas the banker makes most money when other business men prosper.

It is stated positively that 40,000 Spanish troops will shortly be withdrawn from Cuba. This is to be done ostensibly because the island is pacified and they are no longer necessary, but really it is claimed because Spain has made up her mind to abandon the island but desires to let herself down as easily as possible.
The presence of a staff officer of Gen. Weyler in this country is creating not a little speculation and it is thought by many he is endeavoring to secure a proposition for the purchase of the island from representatives of the Cuban government in this country. That something important in that connection is about to happen there can be no possible doubt. That the cause of Cuba will be advanced by events of the near future is a very general belief in well informed circles.

"PRIDE goeth before a fall," sayeth the wise man, and the silver Democracy seems determined to prove the truth of the saying. One acquainted with the situation would naturally suppose they would court harmony with the sound money wing of the party for future campaigns.
But almost everywhere they are apparently burning the bridges behind them and making it impossible for the sound money wing of the party again to unite with them. They are told to go over to the Republicans where they belong and many of them will no doubt heed the advice. The New York "Journal" the only Democratic paper in that city which supported Bryan, tells Mr. Hill to keep out of the party and adds that it "can make no use of sneaks." The breach is widening daily and will continue to do so unless the silverites hear something dropping. In the meantime Republicans look on with becoming complacency.

The fire department of this city is complimented highly by insurance men for its efficient condition. It is due to the business like management of the "business men's council." The present council, notwithstanding the flagrant assaults of the opposition papers, has done more for the city in the way of public improvements than any former one. It has made a record of which it needs not be ashamed.
The improvements in the electric light system by good management and in the fire department service alone are sufficient to give it ample ground for self-gratulation. But this is not all, nor indeed the most important work with which they will be credited.
The sewer system which they are about to inaugurate, if well done, will prove the greatest blessing to the city of anything that has been accomplished by any council in its history. We have the utmost confidence in the judgment of the men composing the council, and believe the work will be well and faithfully done. Had this work been done ten years ago the population of the city would now be much greater than it is. Great stress is laid on the bad condition of the streets by the opposition papers.
The streets are not as good as they ought to be. They are, however, far better kept than they had been before the advent of this council, so that there is little to complain of on that score. This council will go down in the history of Paducah as an able and efficient legislative body.

THE ENGLISH IRON TRADE.
England has begun to discover that she is about to lose her grasp on the iron business of the world. Her own mines are practically exhausted and she has long been largely dependent on Spain for ores. The importation largely increases the initial cost of the output and favors American competition. A very large importation of American pig was made last year and the prospect is for material increases in the importations of this year. Much space is given the subject in a recent edition of the "Times," and speaking of the importation of ores it says:
"Such sources are precarious, and in view of the threatened exhaustion of the ores in the North of Spain and the probable increase of the cost of ores procurable elsewhere, it is not too much to say that almost every iron-making firm in Great Britain engaged in hematite production, which is nearly half our total output, is anxiously concerned and apprehensive that a few years will see the end of the monopoly they have hitherto enjoyed in cheap iron output. While, however, it is probable that no second Bilbao is available, it is believed Spain still has large undeveloped resources in ores, many of which have been acquired by British firms."

The Duke of Devonshire referred to the astonishing cutting in prices by American competition and expressed a hope that the Americans might be satisfied to confine most of their fighting to their own country. This caused the "Times" to remark:
"The American iron trade does not show any such intention. On the contrary, they are planning greater rivalry all along the line."

Continuing, the "Times" refers to the gigantic state of the American iron-makers' plants now built and operated and instances the immense Carnegie furnaces and the newest type of Garrett wire mill used in America, and says the work thus produced is almost incredible, adding, as a significant feature of the situation, the statement that the recent plants built in England have adopted American methods.

"While the Duke of Devonshire," the "Times" continues, "practically admitted American superiority, he did not mention the most wonderful thing—the immense distances the ores and finished products have to be carried in America. English trade is still handicapped by heavy railway freights."

A "Tariff for Revenue Only." At the close of March the Gorman-Wilson "Tariff for revenue only" of the Democratic party had been in operation for thirty-one months. How it operated in supplying "revenue only" can be seen from the following summary:

Month	Revenue	Expenditure
January	$1,100,000	$1,200,000
February	$1,200,000	$1,300,000
March	$1,300,000	$1,400,000

ANOTHER BLOW AT ARBITRA-TION.
From the Irish World.
Because the administration at Washington has taken steps to safeguard our interests in the Behring sea fisheries, the English press is shouting out that the United States has struck another blow at arbitration.
By the way, the first blow was struck when the United States Senate did not, in hot haste, ratify the agreement entered into between Lord Salisbury and Cleveland. The second blow was delivered when the Senate added on amendments that were intended to prevent this country from being victimized whenever England saw fit to resort to arbitration.

And moreover our government is not disposed to allow British sealers to have their own way in the Behring Sea. We are told by the St.
James "Gazette" that still another blow is aimed at arbitration. Here is how it expresses itself on the subject:
"The United States has inflicted another blow on the believers in arbitration. Could a more complete demonstration of the hollowness of arbitration be given? It is quite possible this matter may become as serious as the Venezuela dispute.
We are bound to support the Canadian's reasonable claim, and the prospect might make us regret the failure of the general arbitration treaty did it not show how small respect Washington feels for arbitration."

It is the old, old story. If you don't take John Bull's view of things, you are a scoundrel of the first water.
The insolent tone which the St.
James Gazette adopts in speaking of this country is characteristic of the whole English press. For weeks that press has been referring to the United States senate as if it were made up of the scum of society, and all because its members believe that their first loyalty is due to the United States, and not to England.

CONSENSUS.
THOU ART A JEWEL.
The city council ought to give the streets away to corporations for street car and railroad purposes, so it would be possible to convey produce to and from the railroad depots as well as passengers. A fish almost two feet in length was caught floating about in a pond of water on Court street after the recent flood receded. Had the water spread entirely over the city the fishy tribe would have caught in the holes in the streets in large numbers.—Visitor, "Random Shot."

That talk of bike track found too strong an opponent in the good streets of the city. The track went down in the first round.—Visitor

WASHINGTON LETTER.
(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

President McKinley made a number of appointments this week, among the most important of which were President James B. Angell, of the Michigan State University, to be minister to Turkey, and ex-Representative Meikeljohn, of Nebraska, to be assistant secretary of war. This is not Mr. Angell's first diplomatic appointment, as he went to China as minister during the Hays administration, especially to secure a revision of the Burlingame treaty, and succeeded in getting it. He is thought to be well qualified to enforce the determined policy of the administration in making Turkey pay for the property of American missionaries destroyed by rioters last year. Mr.
Meikeljohn served two terms in the House with credit, and will make an efficient secretary to Secretary Alger.

Senator Morrill, the chairman of the Committee on Finance, celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday this week and had the honor of making the first tariff test vote taken in the Senate, to refer Senator Vest's resolution declaring Secretary Gage's order to collectors of customs, concerning the clause of the Dingley tariff bill making the duties take place April 1, to be without authority, and of seeing himself carried by a majority of one.
When the Dingley bill is put upon its final passage it will have a larger majority than that.

A notable feature of the Jefferson banquet of the silver Democrats, which was so manipulated as to seem to endorse Mr. Bryan for the silver Democratic nomination in 1900, was the absence of gold Democrats. It was a combination Bryan-silver love feast and only those were invited who were known to adore the combination.

There are no longer any sceptics concerning President McKinley's intention to live up to the St. Louis platform by making every possible effort to bring about the acceptance of international bimetallism by the great commercial nations of the world. In appointing three diplomatic commissioners to visit Europe and ascertain by negotiation with other countries what can be done to bring about an increase in the use of silver as money, he chose men who are well known as staunch advocates of bimetallism—Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, Gen. Paine, of Massachusetts, and Hon. Adlai E.
Stevenson, of Illinois. These gentlemen expect to start for Europe in about a month's time, and will probably remain there until the attitude of all the important European governments is officially made known to them.

Believing that the Carnegie and Bethlehem Steel Companies are trying to embarrass the government by refusing to make armor plates for the naval vessels now building at a reasonable price, Secretary Chandler has introduced two bills providing that the Secretary of the Navy shall take possession of the armor-plates of those two companies and manufacture the armor plates needed for the three battle ships now under construction, and authorizing those companies to bring suit in the court of claims for their compensation. Representative Cannon, of Illinois, who will be chairman of the Committee on Appropriations when it is appointed, was asked what would be done to meet the stubborn attitude of the armor-makers, and he replied:
"I suppose we shall have to remove the limit of cost and allow the contractors their blood money.
The ships must be finished, and the armor must be had. But if I could have my way, I do not think any more armored sea going vessels would be built by the United States very soon."

The constant clashes between the men who made Representative Bailey, of Tex., the leader of the Democrats in the House and those who wanted to make McMillin, of Tenn., leader are really amusing, and it is believed that they are being slyly encouraged by "Slippery Jim" Richardson, of Tenn., and "Silver Dick" Bland, of Mo., both of whom have aspirations to be the leader of the House minority. Meanwhile the House continues to meet and adjourn every three days.

A LOST ENGLISH CITY.
Nothing Left of It Except Some Traps

There are few sections of the British coast line which have been subjected to greater change and devastation than that of East Anglia, lying between Bournemouth and Lynn. Centuries after centuries the sea has slowly but surely gained its victories over the land, and today it carries on the siege with untiring energy. The East Anglian shores offer but a frail barrier against the swinging North sea rollers; often nothing but a narrow ridge of narrow grown hillocks of drifted sand lies between the fretting beach and the low-lying marshland, stretching inland for many miles. Already the ocean bed of Norfolk and Suffolk is strewn with the ruins of villages, towns and even cities that once were conspicuous landmarks of the coast, and fitted out many ships to fight their country's battles in England's early wars.

Between Southwold and Aldeburgh, on the Suffolk coast, in an out-of-the-way corner of the country, where the screed and roar of the railway are yet unheard, is a sparsely populated village of about two score cottages, all that now remains of Dunwich, the old time seat of government and capital of East Anglia. Once the largest and most flourishing city in eastern England, the residence of kings, the seat of a bishop, a seat of learning and a port of considerable trade, its glory has departed, its palaces, churches, monasteries, streets and markets have disappeared beneath the waves. Before the Norman conquest the sea had completely its work of devastation, nor did it cease its siege when the ruin of the great city was accomplished.

There are grounds for belief that the old city of Dunwich stood on the site of a settlement of the Roman legions who conquered the island, and their queen, Boudicca, Subsequent to the Roman invasion it increased rapidly in population and prosperity. Of the importance of the place in the time of Richard I. some idea may be gained from the fact that it was one of the marks for unlawfully supplying the king's enemies with corn, while Ipswich and Yarmouth, now two of the three principal towns in East Anglia, were only ordered to pay the sum of 200 marks each. In the reign of Henry II. it was a town of good note, "abounding in much riches and sundry kinds of merchandise." At the beginning of his reign King John granted a charter of liberties to the town, by which the inhabitants were allowed to marry their sons and daughters as they pleased, and to give, sell, or dispose of their property as they thought fit.
Under the same charter, which cost the Miss Purdam has been visiting friends in this city for two weeks and her parents were expected to call for her today. Young Ely realizing that time was precious the parents of the young lady being opposed to the match, arrived this morning ahead of the parents and the couple are now doubtless united.

MITT COPE

Said to Have Been Indicted This Morning.

THREE COUNTS FOR FORGERY.

Illinois Central Indicted for Obstructing a Public Highway.

RILEY GAY GETS TWO YEARS.

According to private information it is reported this afternoon that Mr. Mitt Cope, formerly president of the First National bank of this city, was indicted this morning by the grand jury on three different accounts for forgery. The notes which he is said to have forged are:

W. J. Elyden and R. A. Mayes, $6,000.
G. E. Allen, $3,500.
R. E. Griffith, $3,500.

All the parties live in Mayfield.

The facts in the case have been known to certain parties who were a position to know, for several weeks, but have previously been kept out of the papers.

The matter came to light on March 8th, when Mr. Cope sent for President R. L. Reeves and Cashier T. A. Baker and confessed to having forged the three notes mentioned above. That night he told his family goodbye and so far as is positively known he has not been here since. It is stated, however, on good authority that he was for a time in Calvert City at the house of a friend. He left there, however, three or four weeks ago with the avowed intention of going to Mexico.

The amount, $13,000 is covered by a personal bond of $50,000 signed by several very prominent men in this city and also by a bond of $20,000 in the Fidelity and Deposit company, of Baltimore. Negotiations are now being made for a settlement, which will be made as soon as a few details are arranged. Mr. Cope has many friends in this city and many think that his troubles are the result of an unbalanced mind.

Among the other indictments, all of which have been suppressed, are said to be one against the Illinois Central railroad for obstructing the public highway at Florence Station, and also several against colored people for immorality.

In the circuit court yesterday, Riley Gay, charged with breaking into Attorney Goss' room, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Nearly the entire day has been occupied with the trial of Will Skelton, charged with breaking into the Leech residence on North Fourth street. Much testimony is being introduced and the trial will probably not be concluded until tomorrow.

EASTER

Celebrated Yesterday in All the Churches.

Pulpits Beautifully Decorated and Special Services Held.

In nearly every church in the city yesterday Easter was appropriately celebrated. For several days enthusiastic church workers had been busy preparing for the day, and when the doors were opened yesterday the pulpits were perfect bowers of beauty.

As is customary the Episcopal church especially held special Easter services. Rev. B. E. Reed preached eloquently on "Christ Is Risen," and a magnificent choir of voices rendered a fine musical program. In the morning the Sunday school had their celebration and a large offering was made by the children for the new window. Special services will be held tonight.

At the first Christian church one of the finest musical programs that has ever been heard in the city was rendered. Rev. W. H. Pinkerton preached in the morning on "The Resurrection Subject of Holiness," and in the evening on "The Doubter Convicted."

At the Broadway Methodist church there was also a beautiful musical program, the solos and accompaniments being universally fine. An offering was taken up for the Sacred bible and the Belle Bennett chair. At the Evangelical church, eight children were confirmed and the Lord's supper was observed.

At the Lutheran church confessional services in English were held. The seating capacity of the First Christian church was taxed to its utmost at both the morning and evening service.

The sermons by the Rev. Mr. Pinkerton were very fine and the music unusually beautiful.

The auditorium was tastefully decorated with palms, flowers and appropriate mottoes, which added much to the beauty and impressiveness of the services.

There were two additions by confessions, at the morning service. There was a good crowd at the Catholic church to attend the Easter service. The sermon by Father Jansen was very impressive. The singing was an especial feature of the occasion.

J. L. Martin, representing the Kelly Goodfellow Shoe Co., of St. Louis, passed through the city this morning for his headquarters.

Engine 218 departed yesterday afternoon for the South end. Sam Lowe and Ed Lofton will command her decks while on the work train.

Thornberg and Barksdale are home again on the 309. They both looked well pleased and happy as they leaned from their respective cab windows.

R. J. Waters, representing Covington Bros. & Co., and Herman Graham, with M. Livingston & Co., were the road agents in on the morning train.

Fireman Frank Turner is "hors du combat" for the present, being afflicted with several large risings. Emmet Sneed is the left bower on the 310 until he gets well.

Fireman Tom Englert and Mike traded shovels this morning for a few days. Tom takes the 122 on the road while "Bumble Bee" chinks the yard engine awaiting of an expected event.

Fireman George Kane got down at one of the stations last trip to take out the ash pan and saw a fine red bird in it. He called Hank Barber to his assistance and they succeeded in catching it.

George, in putting it into the tank box let it escape. He mourns its loss as his best girl is passionately fond of red birds and they are hard to trap.

The other day as a large funeral cortege was passing down a South Side street with Undertaker Frank Eklund seated beside the driver of the hearse, one of the bystanders on the street corner, yelled to him, "Oh, Frank, who's dead?" several times.

Mr. Eklund pointing to the inside of the hearse, replied, "The man in the coffin." An appropriate response, for sure.

Fireman Billy Kane is very sleepy headed of a morning and for that reason in common with all good husbands he always occupies the back side of the bed so that his better half can get up to make the fires and attend to other matters about the house without waking him up. All day Saturday Mrs. Kane was engaged coloring Easter eggs for her little nieces and nephews and the receptacle in which they were stored looked really beautiful with its rain-bowed contents. Yesterday morning after she had the maternal repast ready she concluded to have some fun out of Billy. She selected fifteen of the prettiest and most variegated of the "Rabbit" fruit and after arranging a nest between the sheets placed them in it. Then she grabbed Billy by his hirsute and gave it a pretty strong pull, telling him to get up as "breakfast was ready." She expected him to throw the covers back and spring up, but Billy who was dreaming that he would have to throw six shovels of coal into the firebox of the 312 to climb the Timberlake Hill rolled over towards the front edge of the bed, smashing the juvenile delights into fragments, and as they were not quite so hard as adamant the sheets and his night shirt were a sight to see. They are now discussing who the joke is really on. Billy says he can't tell whether the eggs hatched out chickens or jack rabbits and his wife will have to launder the linen.
